

K-LOVE radio serves my community in a positive way, bringing a higher standard of music and message to the residents here. The potential of losing this broadcast in FM would no doubt be a negative for this community. This station serves the public in remarkable ways by replacing the usual radio waves, too often filled with questionable content with safe, family-friendly, character-building, life-changing messages.